Proclamation Information

Proclamation Name National Day of Mourning

Start Date Tuesday, April 28, 2026

End Date Tuesday, April 28, 2026

How is your proclamation is of interest and/or benefit to the citizens of Kingston?

April 28 was first declared as a day of mourning by the Canadian Labour Congress in 1984. It has since been recognized by the Government of Canada as a National Day of Mourning and is also observed by over 100 countries around the globe.

This day was previously recognized by the city of Kingston in 2017.

Purpose: To honour the victims of workplace tragedies and fight for improved safety for all workers.

Significance: It serves as a reminder that workplace injuries and illnesses are preventable, and to emphasize that safety is a top priority over production.
